VENUE: EAST POINT COLLEGE OF MANAGEMENT

DAY1: 27.01.2024, 4:30 P.M ONWARDS

DAY 2: 28.01.2024, 10.00 A.M ONWARDS

INFERNO, the cultural extravaganza meticulously organized by East Point College of Management, stands as an annual beacon of artistic expression and competitive fervor. Aimed at providing a robust platform for students, the festival becomes a melting pot of diverse talents, fostering not just a spirit of competition but also forging lasting connections and unforgettable moments.

This year's edition, celebrated with grandeur on the 27th and 28th of January 2024, showcased the vibrant tapestry of skills possessed by the students and faculty. The two-day extravaganza unfolded into a whirlwind of excitement, where every corner resonated with the pulse of creativity and enthusiasm.

The event left no stone unturned, featuring a spectrum of activities ranging from soul-stirring music performances and electrifying dance showcases to the rhythmic beats of beatboxing. The battle of dance moves, the elegant Fashion Walk, solo performances in dance and music, group acts that mesmerized, and an intriguing "call for the director" segment - each element contributed to the multifaceted experience.

The atmosphere was electric as students and faculty immersed themselves in the diverse array of events, creating an ambiance where talent seamlessly intertwined with the joy of participation. INFERNO not only symbolized a celebration of skills but also served as a nexus for shared joy, camaraderie, and the formation of cherished memories within the East Point College of Management community

MUSICAL NIGHT

The grand finale of INFERNO unfolded in a crescendo of melodies during the much-anticipated Musical Night. Following the completion of all competitive events, students immersed themselves in the rhythmic beats of the DJ, transforming the venue into a pulsating dance floor. The air was filled with infectious energy as everyone grooved to the captivating tunes, setting the stage for the announcement of the ultimate winner. This enchanting musical interlude not only provided a moment of collective celebration but also served as a dynamic prelude to the exhilarating revelation of the finest talent and the crowning of the overall champion.

ROLLING TROPHY WON BY TEAM IGNITERS

The pinnacle of the INFERNO fest was undoubtedly the triumphant moment when the winning team (IGNITERS) stood proudly on the stage, clutching the gleaming trophy. Their exceptional performance resonated with the audience, showcasing an extraordinary display of talent and teamwork. The cheers and applause echoed through the auditorium as the trophy was handed over, symbolizing not just victory but also the culmination of dedicated effort and artistic brilliance. This crowning achievement added an unforgettable touch to the festivities, leaving an indelible mark on the collective memory of the East Point College of Management community.

CONCLUSION In summation, the INFERNO fest held at East Point College of emerged as an exemplar of cultural prowess and communal engagement. Executed with meticulous planning, the two-day event, hosted on the 27th and 28th of January 2024, showcased an exemplary fusion of artistic finesse, fervent passion, and spirited competition.

From the harmonious notes of musical compositions to the eloquent choreography on the dance stage, and the stellar performances across various categories, INFERNO unfolded as a distinguished platform uniting students and faculty in the celebration of not only individual talents but also in the collective essence of the college community.

As the curtains drew on this grand spectacle, the resonance of the festival lingered in the collective consciousness, serving as a reservoir of inspiration and camaraderie. INFERNO 2024 stands as a pivotal chapter in the annals of the college's cultural legacy, reinforcing the significance of shared experiences in nurturing a profound sense of community and pride within the esteemed East Point College of Management fraternity.
